How to Make It Fully Explained—Next Sunday's "Democrat" Gives the Opportunity.

Can you spell? Can you detect errors in spelling?

In next Sunday's DEMOCRAT there will be a certain word spelled incorrectly in a certain advertisement.

The person who detects this particular error and makes first report of it to this office will be given TEN DOLLARS IN GOLD by the DEMOCRAT. A memorandum of this particular typographical error has been made and placed in a sealed envelope and given into the keeping of Mr. R. H. Moses.

Other errors may inadvertently occur and may be detected by the sharp-eyed reader, but this particular error must be discovered to earn the prize.

Answers must be in a sealed envelope and may consist of as many errors as occur in Sunday's paper, provided the particular word that has been selected be among them.

Answers will be received at the DEMOCRAT office commencing Monday and closing at 6 p. m. Tuesday next.

LIFE UNBEARABLE.

The Sad Story of a Woman of the Town—Attempts Suicide.

There has been chronicled in these columns several times passages in the life of Mrs. Carrie McCracken. Several years ago, she was criminally assaulted, as the court decided, by Joe Hewitt, for which offense he is now behind the bars of the penitentiary at Jefferson City.

Since then the woman has gradually fallen away from any path of rectitude that she might have followed before, until now, haunted by remorse, and cast aside by the one upon whom in weakness she cast her affections, she has repeatedly attempted suicide. A week or two ago she took enough morphine to kill half a dozen people and her life was saved only after extreme efforts. For the past several nights she has made several attempts to secure razors and knives to complete the work, but her companions watched her too closely. Yesterday about 11 o'clock she disappeared from her lodgings and it was at once thought that she has made away with herself. A continuous search was made for her, but not until 10 o'clock last night was she located. She was found in a dazed condition on the prairie south of the city and every indication points to the fact that she had taken laudanum. She is in a serious condition.

People surrounded by their friends and enjoying all the happiness of correct lives can but little appreciate the horrible, monstrous conditions that are around these people of the lower world. A walk of three blocks in certain directions in this city brings about a greater transformation than to pass from heaven to hades. There it is that laughter choked with the agony of tears is a hollow mockery of what it seems; the spectre of death stands with its bony hands clasping the suicide's knife and the morphine bottle, and the terrors of the great unknown are gladly, early sought to escape the tortures of the present.

Disturbed the Peace.

An individual giving the name of Jim Saunders was arrested at noon for raising a racket with his wife. The charge of disturbing the peace was slated against him at the calaboose.

Social Last Night.

The Knights and Ladies of Honor gave a delightful social last night at their hall in the Glass building.

She Was Acquitted.

Lavinia Shannon was acquitted in Justice Levens' court to-day of the charge of having stolen a blanket from Susan Chaney. Both are colored.

Has Signed for Next Season.

Bob Willett writes to a Sedalia friend that he has signed with the Warde-James company for next season at a better salary and with better parts. He will remain with Mr. Warde during the summer at the latter's country home in Sullivan county, New York. Bob writes that the place is an ideal one, being near a lake about 3 miles long and a mile wide, the waters of which are clear as crystal and well stocked with bass and pickerel. Its shores are covered with beech, fir and pine trees, and the mountain streams are filled with trout.

A Noontide Fire.

About 12 o'clock to-day an alarm of fire was sounded, calling the department to Kentucky and the Missouri Pacific tracks, where a stable in the rear of Siebe's saloon was found blazing fiercely. The stable had ignited from a pile of chicken coops adjoining, in which was a quantity of straw where someone had deposited a match. The stable was damaged to the extent of about $25, and was not insured.

Adjourned Until Saturday.

The county court adjourned last evening until 9 o'clock Saturday morning, at which time the petition praying the court to order a special election for the purpose of voting upon the proposition to erect a new jail will come up for consideration. At the same time bids for making necessary repairs on the court house will be opened and the contract probably let.

The Ilgenfritz Case.

The supreme court yesterday reversed and remanded the case of Belle M. Ilgenfritz, respondent, vs. Wm. D. Ilgenfritz, appellant. The case was a suit in equity filed in the Pettis county circuit court at the January term, 1889, in which plaintiff prayed that the title to the West Third street residence be taken from W. D. Ilgenfritz and vested in her. The decision of the Pettis county court was in favor of Mrs. Ilgenfritz, but Mr. Ilgenfritz took an appeal to the supreme court, which yesterday reversed and remanded the case for a new trial.

THE DEMOCRAT,
Sedalia, Mo.

Office: 307 Ohio St. Telephone 232.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

EDWIN BOOTH, the great actor, died in New York last night.

MANY a Missouri cornfield will be cleared of weeds if this favorable weather lasts a week.

THE way to prevent crime is to arrest all suspicious characters as soon as they appear in the city. Sedalia now has the reputation of being a very unpleasant home for crooks. Let that reputation be maintained.

THE extradition treaty with Russia has been approved and promulgated by the president. Hereafter those Russians whose patriotism has led them to attempt to overthrow the most despotic government in Europe will find no asylum in the United States.

THE condition of the city treasury has nothing to do with building and repairing sidewalks. The law provides that improvements of this character be made at the expense of the property owner. Let the law be enforced until we have not a dilapidated sidewalk in Sedalia.

Nobody will deny that Pettis county needs a new jail; with all the facts before them few will claim that so rich and populous a county cannot afford to erect the building that is admitted to be needed to restrain the desperate criminals who prey upon the industrious and law abiding.

THE editor of the DEMOCRAT is in receipt of a private letter from Prof. A. J. Smith, superintendent of the public schools of this city, who is now in Chicago at the World's Fair, in which he speaks in the highest terms of the great exposition. He says charges are not extortionate, and that himself and party are enjoying the visit greatly.

THE policy of arresting tramps and suspicious characters has unquestionably tended to prevent the commission of crime in this city. It is unfortunate that we have no workhouse where petty criminals, vagrants and trespassers can be imprisoned at hard labor, but in the absence of such an institution the next best thing is to let them understand that they will be arrested and made to give an account of themselves whenever they appear in Sedalia.

OUR single gold standard friends should learn a lesson from the experience of the protectionists. It is not always safe to draw the lines on the American people, as the republicans found when the McKinley bill lost them the west, and it is within the bounds of probability that the proposed demonetization of silver if carried out will result in such a victory for the populists that in a few years the fiat money advocates may win congress and demonetize gold as well.

THE Washington correspondent in giving a list of the well known names on the pension list says: "Ex-Governor T. T. Crittenden, of Missouri, who is supposed to be a man enjoying perfect health and in possession of all the faculties and of reasonable wealth, and who has recently been appointed Consul General of the United States to Mexico, is drawing $32 a month by virtue of an oath sworn to by him of total disability to earn his living."

THE goldbug Kansas City Times does Mr. Cleveland a gross injustice when it permits its Washington City correspondent to represent that the policy of the administration is to let gold sink as low as possible and a financial crash come to our very doors in order to, in the school of adversity, educate us free silver cranks to the beauty of a single gold standard. Western democrats differ from Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Sherman on the money question, but the rank and file regard the president as honest and patriotic, and they do not believe that he takes pleasure in seeing business firms fail and universal distress impending in order to carry a political point.

LET it be remembered that the silver purchase law, to which existing financial troubles are attributed, is not a free silver measure. It was not framed by free silver men. Its author and advocate was John Sherman, the veteran republican senator from Ohio, ex-secretary of the treasury and the leader of the goldbugs. It was Sherman's best remedy for financial evils and it has increased those evils tenfold. Can such a physician be trusted to prescribe for the American people? Is it not an exhibition of colossal gall for the goldbugs to attempt to pose as teachers of sound financial doctrine when the pet measure of their leader is an admitted failure?

THE Springfield Democrat has this to say of Congressman Heard: "Knowing well enough that his election was a certainty without effort, Congressman Heard did not hesitate to come to Greene county and lend valuable aid to the democrats in the campaign. He said that he wanted to renew old acquaintances and make new ones. Congressman Heard is again in the city to learn what democrats want and what they are saying. His visit is not solely for the purpose of finding office for men, although he does not shrink from the duty of endorsing the men who will be the choice of the majority of democrats and representatives of the people."

THE man who has no debts hanging over him and who has more money on hand than he needs in his business, will doubtless enjoy taking his family to Chicago and expending some of his surplus funds in attending the World's fair. But the man of small means who is in debt and can only get together a few dollars by "standing off" bills or going in debt, cannot afford to rush off to the big show and leave his wife at home to work and economize on the next three months' expenses. If the hard-working man of small means must have an outing, take the family out in the country for a few weeks; it can be done cheaper and the returns in health and strength are greater. Then for five cents a day you can buy a newspaper that will tell the average citizen more about the World's fair than he can see by a visit of a few days to the grounds.

LAST NIGHT'S RECITAL.

A Delightful Programme Rendered at the Christian Church.

A pleasant musical recital was given at the Christian church last evening, in honor of Miss Maggie Johns, who has completed the course of music in Ruth Ann school. Several very fine selections were rendered on the piano by Miss Johns, which were much appreciated and heartily applauded, indicating the splendid training received at Ruth Ann school.

A trio, song by Misses Mabel Thornton, Lizzie Kennedy and Kate Antes, was a beautiful selection, and the young ladies well sustained their reputation as vocalists.

The solos sung by Mrs. Kate Houx and Miss Maud Shirk were heartily applauded and greatly enjoyed, Miss Shirk being recalled three times.

Following was the programme: Concerto; Op. 73, 2d and 3d movements. Beethoven.

Trio from Favorita, "Gentle Zephyr." Donizetti.

Misses Thornton, Kennedy and Antes. Magic Fire Scene from Die Walkure, Wagner.

Florida's Song, Godard.

Spanish Serenade, Dessauer.

Mrs. Houx. Prelude, Op. 28, No. 15, Chopin. Valse, Op. 34, No. 1, Moszkowski. "Oh, that we two were," Henschel. Maying, Thomas. Gavotte from Mignon, Miss Shirk.

An Indian Tale, Lowe. Etude, Dance of the Elves, Kroeger.

Recitals will be given at the Christian church on Thursday evening and Friday evening, in which the pupils of Ruth Ann school in both the instrumental and vocal departments will take part.

Rotten-Egged the Mayor.

Recently by action of a majority of the aldermen and the mayor an ordinance that had been in force for several years restraining cows and other stock from running at large was repealed at Versailles. Monday night at a meeting of the council a petition of four-fifths of the citizens was presented asking that the stock ordinance be enforced and the request was refused. The mayor was on his way home about midnight, when unknown parties, taking advantage of the darkness, subjected his honor and two gentlemen who were with him to a volley of eggs of more strength than durability, and compelled them to take flight.

The Hog Must Go.

The annual city election for councilmen was held at Lexington yesterday. Politics were dropped and an issue made as to the stock law. Some time since the council passed an ordinance against stock running at large, and at this election the candidates were for and against the stock law. The candidates in favor of the law gained a glorious victory by a vote of nearly 3 to 1. Thos. Hare was elected in the First ward, G. C. Kit in the Second, Ed Taubman in the Third and Chris Walk in the Fourth ward.

A New Bank Examiner.

The Washington correspondent of the Republic chronicles the appointment of W. A. Latimer, of Hannibal, Mo., as national bank examiner. The dispatch says:

"Mr. Latimer will be assigned to duty at large and does not succeed either of the two Missourians appointed by the last administration. It is understood that Mr. Galbreath, of Sedalia, has made a splendid record as an examiner, and will not be disturbed for the present at least. He and Mr. Kellogg, of Holt county, will continue to examine Missouri banks, while Mr. Latimer will be assigned to a broader field."

A Close Call.

The residence of W. A. E. Adams, No. 810 West Fourth street, came near going up in smoke about 5 o'clock this morning. Mr. Adams arose at that hour and built a fire in the kitchen stove, after which he stepped out into the yard and engaged in conversation with his neighbor, Mr. Blocher. A few minutes later Mrs. Adams arose and found the ceiling of the kitchen all in a blaze, the fire having originated from a defective flue. Instead of rushing wildly from the house and calling help, the heroic lady began fighting the flames with the limited supply of water at hand, and they were soon extinguished without any serious damage having resulted.

"FARMER" BALDWIN HERE.

Tanned as a Saddle and With Caloused Hands He Invades the Prairie Queen.

A. C. Baldwin, farmer, journalist and politician, as tanned as a saddle and wearing good-sized bunions in the palms of his hands, arrived from Saline county last evening and will remain until Friday as the guest of Dr. A. V. Small and family.

Since retiring from journalism Mr. Baldwin has been engaged in farming near Fairville, Saline county, and comes to Sedalia loaded to the guards with information bearing on agricultural pursuits.

"I guess we have had as much rain in Saline as you have had in Pettis," he said to a DEMOCRAT reporter, "but ours is the garden spot of the world, you know, and we shall have fair crops, notwithstanding the season is backward. 'How do I like farming? Oh, fairly well. You may not believe it, but I don't sit in the house while others do the work; I go out and do it myself, and then I know that it is done.'"

In proof of his statement he held out the palms of both hands, showing them to be caloused and as hard as those of a feather-weight prize fighter.

Mr. Baldwin reports that his health has greatly improved since his removal to Saline, and his wife and children have also been benefited by the change. His brother-in-law, J. Morgan Brown, is the only member of the family whose condition has not improved by a residence in the country.

Mr. Baldwin shipped a carload of hogs to the St. Louis market yesterday and has another carload that will follow at an early day. While he is now a farmer and stock raiser, he still takes an interest in journalism, and his inquiries in regard to the newspapers of Sedalia caused one or two acquaintances to wonder if he was not sizing up the situation with a possible view to returning to the Prairie Queen some of these days and again engaging in the business.

HOW CAN YOU RELISH FROZEN SEWERAGE?

Dr. L. Bremer, of St. Louis, Mo., in an article published in the April number of the Bacteriological World, at Battle Creek, Mich., says:

"Whoever has seen with what utter disregard to the simplest hygienic precautions that natural ice is gathered, must be astonished, if he be familiar with the mental teachings of bacteriology, that epidemic diseases are not more frequent. I am sure that to the tumbler and the ice box are traceable many a case of typhoid and diphtheria. The ice box especially offers the greatest opportunities for food contamination."

WHITE-LISTER.

A Happy Marriage Consummated
Last Evening—Large Attendance and Many Presents.

At 8 o'clock last evening, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs.
Robert Lister, corner Fifth and Engineer, Mr. A. J. White and Miss Sarah Lister were united in marriage by Rev. J. S. Myers, of the Christian church.

The south parlor was beautifully festooned with evergreens and flowers. The bridal couple stood in the recess of a bay window, beneath a horseshoe of white geraniums, and surrounded by their friends were made man and wife.

The bridesmaid was Miss Nellie Hoke, of Jefferson City, and the groomsman was Mr. Joe Shore, of Moberly. The wedding march from Mendelssohn was rendered by Miss Birdie Clark. Rev. Myers was unusually happy in his remarks.
A fairer bride never gave heart and hand to one so worthy of her love.

She was attired in a queen albatross dress trimmed in crystal and rare lace. Bride's roses were carried and diamond ornaments worn, together with the bridal veil and orange blossoms.

After the ceremony the guests sat down to a bountiful supper, where everything that heart could desire was spread before them. Congratulations were showered upon the young couple continuously.

The presents were numerous and costly. There were many pieces of silver, fine glass water and wine services, furniture, etc. A handsome bedroom set was the gift of the groom's associates at the machine shops.

Mr. A. J. White, the groom, is a popular machinist at the Missouri Pacific shops. He numbers his friends by the hundreds and is a gentleman of sterling character.
The bride, Miss Sarah Lister, is one of East Sedalia's most accomplished young women. She is a favorite with all who know her.

The bride and groom will leave at noon for Chicago, where they will attend the World's fair, after which they will visit the groom's parents at Brookfield, Mo. Upon their return they will commence housekeeping on East Sixth street. The DEMOCRAT extends its warmest congratulations to them and trusts that all their life will be filled with brightness.

TRAIN ROBBER WILSON.

He is Writing a History of "My Bold and Lone Robbery."

Train Robber Wilson occupied the day yesterday in writing the history of what he terms, "My Bold and Lone Robbery." It is evident, says the St. Louis Republic, that his head has become enlarged by the notoriety given him in the papers and he is very anxious to keep his name before the public. In winding up his long-winded, and at times incoherent, statement he says: "I think I should be pardon-ed and sent to the World's fair as the greatest living curiosity," etc.

L. A. Fuller, superintendent of the Pacific express company, called at the Four Courts and Chief Desmond delivered the $507 which was turned over by Wilson when he was captured. Chief Desmond said that Sheriff Jones told him before leaving that he would apply for a warrant against Wilson in Franklin county. Wilson will be held in St.
Louis for safe keeping until his trial comes up.

PETTIS' FUGITIVES!

HAVE THEY BEEN ARRESTED AT OSWEGO, KANSAS?

IT LOOKS AS IF THEY HAD.

Some Pleasing Information Received at the Sheriff's Office This Morning.

Information was received at the sheriff's office to-day that leads to the belief that the four fugitives who escaped from the Pettis county jail Thursday night of last week, were taken in custody at Oswego, Kansas, south of here on the M., K. & T., last night.

A postal card was received from the marshal, and also a letter from the sheriff, the latter giving full particulars of the arrest of the quartette—three negroes and a white man—on the charge of having burglarized a store there.

The descriptions correspond with those of the Patton boys and Umbles, even to a scar on the latter's cheek. There is a slight discrepancy as to the description of Grubbs, but it is believed the latter is also in custody.

If the right parties have been arrested it shows that they succeeded in eluding the officers after having been chased south of Windsor, and then boarded an M., K. & T. freight train and proceeded to Oswego.

Deputy Constable Ramsey will leave for Oswego on the first train, feeling pretty confident that the parties wanted here are in custody there.

such as Hanging Lamps, Bedroom Sets, Dinner and Tea Sets, Water Sets, Refrigerators, Ice Cream Freezers, Water Coolers, all kinds of Wooden and Tinware, Boy's Wagons, Velocipedes and Safeties, Girl's Tricycles, Croquet, Hammocks, Baby Carriages and in fact anything that can be found in a full and complete stock of house furnishing goods that I am bound to close out to make room for fall goods. This is the chance of a life time to get bargains in this line. I have not marked the goods either up or down but will give 25 per cent. off the regular price and that will bring many of them below cost. ## Mortgagee's Sale.

Having failed to get a purchaser for the Farnham & Crawford stock in bulk, I shall for the next ten days, at the old stand on Second street, sell Folding Beds (children's and adults), Hall Trees, Pier Glasses, Side Boards, Office Desks (rolling tops), Bedroom Sets, Dressers, Book Cases, Cheffoniers, Cabinets, Office Chairs, Baby Buggies, Wardrobes, Dining Tables, Kitchen and Stand Tables, Washstands, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Safes, Mattresses, Pillows, Pictures, Looking Glasses, Bed Springs, Parlor Suits, Lounges, Fancy and Plain Chairs, Rockers, Cribs, Wood and Cane-seated Chairs, Dining Chairs, Music Stands, Easels, Commodes, Brackets, Hat Racks, Clock Shelves, Medicine Cases, Wall Pockets, Towel Racks, and a thousand and one household articles for ornament and use.

$10,000

Worth of fine furniture of the latest style and finish must be sold at once. The stock is full, elegant and good. The misfortune which overtook the worthy members of the firm of Farnham & Crawford in the shape of financial embarrassments put me in charge of this stock as trustee. The sale is therefore a MORTGAGE SALE. Every one knows what that means. It is, in a nut shell, that the goods will be sold not at cost or above cost but FAR BELOW FACTORY PRICES. This is precisely what is going to happen. It is the first chance in Sedalia for real bargains in furniture. This is no advertisement to be discounted 50 per cent. It is, on the other hand, a statement of fact made by me in reference to a matter that all generous people regret. No one should want to see reputable merchants fail. No one should want to see prices demoralized by the forced slaughter of goods. But it cannot be helped, and since it is so, what are you going to do about it? If you are shrewd you will put your fingers in the pie, since it is baked and ready and mighty fine pie, too.

As the adage has it: "Make hay while the sun shines."

As the proverb saith: "It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good."

As the maxim puts it: "A penny saved is as good as two earned."

Or as the immortal bard has written it:

"There is a tide in the affairs of men

Which, taken at its flood, leads on to fortune;

Omitted, all the voyage of their life

Is bound in shallows and is miseries."

In plain English, you have a chance to save some money and will you act wise or otherwise?

Henry Lamm, Trustee.

Coffins and undertaking goods from 25 to 50 per cent. below regular prices and a heavy line, well selected on hand, also covered by the mortgage and bound to be sold.

JIM IS AT THE FAIR.

CONDUCTOR MERRIFIELD NOW
SIGHT-SEEING IN CHICAGO.

A LETTER TO A SEDALIAN.

Some of the Sights Seen by the Gentlemen of the Missouri Pacific Ticket Puncher.

Conductor J. K. Merrifield and wife are visiting the World's fair in Chicago, and their many friends can rest assured that they are having an enjoyable time. They arrived in the "windy city" early last week and will leave for home Friday or Saturday. The DEMOCRAT was kindly permitted to make a few extracts from a letter received from Mr. Merrifield by a Sedalia friend, dated June 4th, as follows:

"For five days Mrs. Merrifield and myself have been doing the fair. No use of talking, it is a big thing. The first day we took in twenty-one buildings, including several state buildings. The second day we visited only three large buildings, the third day four and the fourth day only one—that of manufacturers and arts, but did not get to the gallery in the latter.

"The foreign exhibits are simply immense. I inspected a coat once worn by King Ludwig. It was trimmed with gold lace and pearls and valued at sixty thousand marks, or $15,000. I inspected a sword the handle of which was studded with diamonds. An armed soldier from Germany stands guard over the valuables constantly.

"I heard the Royal band from Berlin to-day and I wish to tell you right now that it is out of sight, as even Henry Otten would admit. Mrs. M. and I took a walk up the midway plaisance this afternoon and took in the Hungarian, Japan, German and Cairo, Egypt, villages. The Cairo street scene took my eye. Buros and camels were numerous, with divans on which you could take a ride for ten cents. The booths are filled with trinkets for sale, with pretty Egyptian girls to sell them. Mrs. M. kept pulling me along, and at last we got through the villages.

"We then entered a booth where they sold French cider. I kept drinking the beverage in order to be near the girls and expect to be up all night as a result of my rashness; but, if so, I will have to suffer in silence, as Mrs. M. says emphatically that she will not leave her bed to ease my pain with peppermint, etc., when I merely drank the cider in order that the French girls might wait on me, with their low-necked dresses and short skirts.

"But, candidly, the plaisance is one of the sights. There are more queer things to be seen than you or I ever before thought possible. Tomorrow I go to see the 'Congress of Beauty,' where the fancy costumes and beautiful forms of forty-six young ladies are on exhibition. No coaxing will induce Mrs. M. to accompany me, so I will have to go alone. Sad, isn't it? When Mrs. M. gets weary she merely calls two Hindoos, and with a roller chair they make it very pleasant for her—for 75 cents an hour.

"We have the midway and two large buildings to go through yet and will probably reach home the latter part of the week. No one who can afford it should miss coming here. You can get rooms in hotels from $1 to $15 per day, and meals from 25 cents to $3. On the fair grounds you can get a good dinner for 50 cents, and everywhere there is an abundance of ice water free. If any one is fleeced it is his own fault. There is plenty of hotel room and will be no need of getting rooms in advance. There are hundreds of hotels near the grounds that will never be filled. The hotels in the city are all comfortably filled, but there is no rush.

"But enough of the fair. It must be seen to be appreciated. I see that Mr. Dickinson has resigned, and Messrs. Clark, Hopkins and Brownlee have been promoted. Of course I regretted to learn of Mr. Dickinson's withdrawal, but knowing the condition of his health I was not surprised. But to know that such men as Clark, Hopkins and Brownlee had gone up a notch higher made me happy. They are all self-made men, having worked themselves up from the bottom, and deserve their success. There is nothing too good for them, in my estimation, and I know that every employ will put his shoulder to the wheel and assist the new management in every way possible.

"Oh, yes, as you are my friend, I will tell you why I remain this week. Carter Harrison, the mayor, asked me to stay and assist him in entertaining Infanta Eulalia. After that is over I will be at liberty to pack my collar box and return to God's country."

Why suffer with headache when 25 cents will buy a box of S. K. Headache Tablets that will cure any form of headaches. One trial will convince you. For sale by all leading druggists.

Mr. Stringer is owner and editor of several New Zealand newspapers. I. FRENSDORF, - - - - - Manager.

THE RAILROADS.

The Burlington is going to put on a new through train from Chicago to San Antonio, Texas, via Hannibal, Mo., and in connection with the "Katy."

The Illinois Central has stopped progress toward an agreement on World's Fair rates in the Western Passenger association, and a fine is now imminent.

W. W. Campbell, general baggage agent for the Texas and Pacific, with headquarters at Dallas, passed through Denison yesterday, on his way to Kirksville, Mo.—Denison Herald.

General Passenger and Ticket Agent Faulkner will be the next official to go from the ranks of the M., K. & T. Information to that effect was received in the city this morning, but how soon, or who his successor would be, was not stated. What will be the Katy's loss will be some other system's big gain.—Denison Herald.

A Big Suit Against the M., K. & T.

United States District Attorney Ady has filed in the circuit at Topeka an amended bill in equity in the case of the government against the M., K. & T. railroad. It is sought to cancel the patent of the M., K. & T. to lands in Allen, Woodson, Anderson, Coffey, Chase, Lyon, Geary, Riley, Dickinson, Waubunsee and Morris counties. The bill is one of the longest that has ever been filed in the United States court and it make eighteen hundred persons defendants, those residing upon lands along the grant of the M., K. T. The case is an enlargement of the Allen county dispute which has been standing for twenty years and which grew out of conflicting grants and the question of priority thereof. Should the government succeed in cancelling the patents it will be entitled to receive from the M., K. & T. the price for which the land was sold to settlers.

The Ricker Resignation.

The change on the Iron Mountain system which has been looked for generally in railroad circles occurred yesterday at headquarters, says the Globe-Democrat of to-day. General Manager Doddridge, of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain, issued yesterday afternoon the following circular:

The Missouri Pacific Railway company, St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway company, and leased, operated and independent lines, Operating Department, St. Louis, Mo., June 6, 1893.—Mr. R. E. Ricker having resigned, Mr. E. A. Peck is hereby appointed general superintendent of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway company, leased, operated and independent lines, with headquarters at St. Louis. Effective to-day. W. B. DODDRIDGE, General Manager.

Mr. Peck has been connected for several years with the Big Four system and is well known as an experienced operating man in western railroad properties. He will take a trip over the Iron Mountain lines to-day with General Manager Doddridge, and will return to headquarters at the close of the week.

He Built the "Katy."

Judge Gray, of Nevada, has issued letters of administration to James A. Carr, of St. Louis, on the estate of the late Robert S. Stevens, of Wyoming county, New York.

Stevens was a wealthy man, says the Nevada Post. He built the M., K. & T. railway. He died at Attica, New York, in February, 1893. Before his death a suit was brought against him, and a judgment rendered for seven thousand dollars against him. He took an appeal. That appeal is still pending.

Stevens before his death made a will in New York, where his heirs are living, but he had land in Vernon county, consequently letters of administration were issued from the Vernon county court. He gave several members of his family ten thousand dollars each.

Barker Comes to St. Louis.

The numerous conflicting statements concerning the appointment of a general passenger agent for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas can now be set at rest. The statement is authorized from traffic headquarters in St. Louis that Mr. James Barker, general passenger agent of the Monon route, Louisville, New Albany and Chicago, has been tendered and has accepted the position of general passenger and ticket agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, with headquarters in St. Louis, the appointment to take effect June 15.

AFTER THE LYNCHERS.

Judge Vail Instructs the Grand Jury That the Men Who Hung Bush Must be Punished.

DECATUR, ILL., June 7.—The grand jury for the June term of the circuit court was impaneled yesterday. Judge Vail, after delivering the usual charge, took up the Bush lynching by saying that a murder had been committed on the streets of Decatur. It was deliberate and cold-blooded. The people of the county would not justify such lawlessness, and if the grand jury men wanted to make themselves accessories after the fact they would take no notice of it.

The state attorney has been threatened injury if he prosecutes the offenders. No officer of the court is a coward. There is no question about the murder and the grand jury must find out who committed it.

The jury then retired. There is no doubt that there is to be a prosecution of the lynchers, and it may be vigorous, but few believe that conviction can be secured. The coroner's jury is still taking testimony.

BUDWEISER BEER ON DRAUGHT, 112 Osage, Frank Krueger, Manager.

Declared Them Not Guilty.

OMAHA, Neb., June 7.—The supreme court, by a vote of two to one, has declared Secretary of State Allen, Attorney General Hastings and Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings Humphrey innocent of the charges against them by the legislature.

Chief Justice Maxwell was the dissenter. He held that the three men were guilty of misdemeanors in office and should be forever barred from holding positions of trust in the public service. But Judges Post and Norval in their opinions acquitted the accused of any intention of wrongdoing and thus restored them to their offices.
